

William R. Ginsberg Memorial Fellowship In Environmental Law

The William R. Ginsberg Memorial Fellowship has been established to support students who are interested in public interest environmental work. Professor Ginsberg was a pioneer in the field of environmental law who taught at Hofstra Law for twenty-nine years.

The Fellowship, established in honor of Professor Ginsberg, provides a stipend in an amount up to $7,500 for a promising Hofstra Law student to pursue public interest environmental work during the summer or academic year. The recipient will also have an opportunity to be considered for a position in the NRDC's prestigious and highly competitive internship program. All students who have completed their first year of law school are eligible to apply.

In addition to completing the application below, students must submit a statement of interest, not to exceed 2 double-spaced pages in length; a resume; an unedited or lightly edited legal writing sample not to exceed 8 double-spaced pages in length; and an official copy of their academic transcript. Final candidates will be interviewed by the Selection Committee.

Criteria for selection of the Fellowship recipient(s) will include, among other things:

- Academic excellence, particularly in the field of environmental law;
- Demonstrated commitment to the environment;
- Demonstrated commitment to public service; and
- Diversity.

All applications must be received by April 29, 2013. Applications should be submitted to the Office of Career Services, Room 250. For additional information please contact Professor Katrina Kuh (Katrina.Kuh@hofstra.edu) or Professor Jay Hickey (James.Hickey@hofstra.edu).
