JURIS DOCTOR PROGRAM

EARLY DECISION AGREEMENT FORM

Note: This Agreement Form is a necessary part of an Early Decision application (including electronic submission) to Hofstra Law School. Applicants must complete and mail this form only if they want to apply for admission under the binding Early Decision process.

EARLY DECISION PROGRAM (BINDING)

Hofstra Law School is pleased to offer an Early Decision application option for those applying as first-year J.D. students for fall 2009. Candidates who apply under this process commit to attending Hofstra Law School if admitted.

Because offers of admission extended under the Early Decision process are binding, candidates may not apply to other law schools under similar Early Decision processes. Early Decision candidates may apply to other law schools under non-binding procedures while applying to Hofstra Law School under the Early Decision process; however, such applicants agree to withdraw all other law school applications if notified of their admission to Hofstra Law School under the Early Decision process. Admitted Early Decision applicants also may not initiate any new applications to other law schools after notification of their acceptance to Hofstra Law School.

The Law School's Office of Enrollment Management must receive your completed Early Decision application with all required documentation by December 1, 2008. Decision letters are mailed by December 22, 2008. If your application is deferred or denied, you are no longer bound by the Law School's Early Decision commitment and may proceed with your applications at other law schools.

I have read the description of Hofstra Law School's Early Decision admissions process in the Application Procedures and this Agreement Form, and wish to be considered as an Early Decision candidate. I will enroll at Hofstra Law School if admitted under this process. In addition, if admitted under Early Decision, I agree to withdraw all applications pending at other law schools and will not initiate any new applications. Finally, I understand that I may not apply to any other law schools under a similarly binding Early Decision process.
