PUBLICATIONS

I. Bennett Capers, The Unintentional Rapist, 87 WASH. L. Rev. 1345 (2010).

Elizabeth Glazer, Naming’s Necessity, 19 LAW & SEXUALITY 166 (2010).

Joanna Grossman, Pregnancy, Work, and the Promise of Equal Citizenship, 98 Geo. L.J. 567 (2010); Dual Parenthood and Inheritance Problems, Jotwell.com (July 19, 2010); Columns in FINDLAW’S WRIT: Lewis v. City of Chicago: The Supreme Court Protects the Right of Disparate-Impact Discrimination Plaintiffs (June 8); New York’s Legislature is on the Brink of Adopting True No-Fault Divorce (June 22); Is DOMA Valid? A Federal District Court Judge Says No (July 19 & 20); The Enforceability of Postnuptial Agreements (Aug. 2 & 3).

Eric Lane, Albany's Dysfunction Denies Due Process, 30 PACE L. Rev. 965 (2010).

COMMENTARY

J. Herbie DiFonzo’s “A Vision for Collaborative Practice” was featured on the Family Law Prof Blog on July 19 and the Legal Ethics Forum on July 23.

Daniel JH Greenwood’s “Government Bad/Corporations Good” was featured in Dissent Magazine on June 2.

Eric Lane’s “For Charter, it’s all in the timing,” was featured in Crain’s New York on June 6. Also, his “Off-Color Thoughts on Watching Fireworks on the Fourth of July” was featured in Brennan Center for Justice on July 6.

James Sample’s “Contributions, Expenditures, and Caperton Contributions” was featured on the Election Law Blog on August 20.

Norman Silber’s Op-Ed, “The first director of CFPA,” was featured on the Hill Congress Blog on August 18.

PRESENTATIONS

Miriam Albert was a presenter at Emory University School of Law’s Center for Transactional Law and Practice’s biannual conference “Transactional Education: What’s Next” on June 5. Also, she presented at the Southeastern Association of Law Schools’ Annual Meeting on August 4th. She spoke on a panel entitled “Innovative Teaching Techniques for Clinical and Skills Courses,” one of several teaching technique workshops at the conference.

Janet Dolgin discussed human subject research (with Dr. Samuel Packer) at the Feinstein Institute, and lectured on “Capacity to Make Medical Decisions” at NuHealth.

Akilah N. Folami moderated the “Media Plenary on The Media’s Construction of Post-Racialism,” presented “Freeing the Press from Editorial Discretion and Hegemony in Bona Fide News: Why the Revolution Should Be Televised,” and served as a commentator on “Missing in Action: The Absence of Potential African-American Supreme Court Justice Nominees—Why This Is and What Can Be Done About It” at the Third National People of Color conference held at Seton Hall Law School, Newark, NJ in September 2010. In addition, she was a panelist on the “Culture at Play with the Law” panel at the South Eastern Association of Law Schools conference held in West Palm Beach, FL in August 2010.

Leon Friedman participated in a PLI program reviewing the last term of the Supreme Court on August 4.

Mitchell M. Gans gave a webinar presentation on family limited partnerships on August 11 for Wealth Transfer Planning.

Elizabeth Glazer presented “Bisexuality and Same-Sex Marriage” at Northwestern University School of Law in July.

Susan Joffe delivered a presentation to the Education Committee of the Nassau County Bar Association on “Risks and Opportunities: The Interview and Selection Process” on June 15.

Julian Ku presented “The Enforcement of Foreign Judgments and Transnational Litigation” at The Manhattan Institute on June 10.

Andrew Schepard participated in the Families Matter Symposium at the University of Baltimore School of Law organized by the American Bar Association Section on Family Law from June 24 to 25.

Rose Villazor presented “Preemption and Federal Immigration Law” at the CNMI Bar Association on July 8; presented “Comparative Analysis: CNMI and U.S. Constitutions” at the CNMI Bar Association on July 16; and presented “CNMI Labor Law and Federal Immigration Preemption” at the United Workers Movement on July 22.

QUOTED IN

BROADCAST APPEARANCES

J. Herbie DiFonzo appeared live on News 12 Long Island's Long Island Talks on Thursday, June 17th to discuss the history of no-fault divorce in New York State and field viewer questions on the subject.

CITATIONS

Hillary Burgess: 16 LEGAL WRITING: J. LEGAL WRITING INST. 521.

Robin Charlow: 9 ELECTION L. J. 211

Akilah Folami: 50 SANTA CLARA L. REV. 515.

Linda Galler: 54 N.Y.L. SCH. L. REV. 495.

John Gregory: 48 FAM. CT. REV. 528.

Ashira Ostrow: 98 GEO. L.J. 1859.

HONORS, APPOINTMENTS, AND OTHER ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I. Bennett Capers was named Associate Dean for Intellectual Life.

Nora V. Demleitner received the Soroptimist (SINC) “Making a Difference for Women” Award in June.

J. Herbie DiFonzo assumed the role of Senior Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

Elizabeth Glazer was selected as one of the Best LGBT Attorneys Under 40 by the National LGBT Bar Association.

Frank Gulino served as Deputy Editor of an article on international legal developments in the Middle East that appeared in the spring 2010 issue of The International Lawyer, the official publication of the ABA’s Section of International Law. Also, he will serve as attorney of record and will supervise students’ appearance before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces at Hofstra on November 3.

Joanna Grossman was interviewed in A Call to Act, a documentary about Lilly Ledbetter and her fight for pay equality.

Julian Ku was awarded a grant to serve as a Fulbright Distinguished Lecturer in Law at the East China University of Political Science and Law in Shanghai during the spring 2011 semester.

Eric Lane was named Associate Dean for Intellectual Life.

Camille Nelson was named dean of Suffolk University Law School in Boston, Massachusetts effective September 1. She is the first woman and the first person of color to hold the position of dean in Suffolk Law School’s 104-year history.

Norman Silber was appointed to the position of Visiting Professor of Law for the spring 2011 term at Yale Law School.

Roy Simon was appointed by U.S. District Judge Alvin Hellerstein to play a key role in a proposed settlement of lawsuits filed by people who believe they were sickened during rescue and cleanup work at the World Trade Center site.