

Spring 2008 Faculty Workshop Series

- Monday, January 14 Mike Moreland, Villanova Law School
“Preemption and Tort Reform Federalism”
- Wednesday, January 23 Michael Simons, St. John’s Law School
“Prosecutors as Punishment Theorists”
- Monday, January 28* Clifford Rosky, UCLA Williams Institute
“Like Father, Like Son: The Gender of Homophobia and Heterosexism in American Family Law”
- Monday, February 4 Peter Markowitz, Hofstra Law School
“Straddling the Civil-Criminal Divide: A Bifurcated Approach to Understanding the Nature of Immigration Removal Proceedings”
- Wednesday, February 20* Tiffany Graham, Villanova Law School
“The Law of Unintended Consequences”
- Wednesday, February 27* Susan Schmeiser, University of Connecticut School of Law
“Legal Intimacies”
- Monday, March 3* Russell Robinson, UCLA School of Law
“Racing the Closet”
- Monday, March 31 Dan Markel, Florida State University Law School
“Criminal Justice and the Problem of Family Taxes”
- Monday, April 7* Dale Carpenter, University of Minnesota Law School
“Traditionalism and Gay Marriage”
- Monday, April 14 Lisa Ramsey, University of San Diego Law School
“Increasing First Amendment Scrutiny of Trademark Law”
- Monday, April 28* Dean Spade, UCLA Williams Institute & Harvard Law School
“Documenting Gender: Gender Incoherence and Rulemaking”

Sponsored by the Hofstra Law Colloquium on Law and Sexuality
Information available at law.hofstra.edu/sexualitycolloquium.*

Faculty workshops will be held in the third-floor faculty lounge at Hofstra Law School. Lunch and presentations will begin at noon.

If you would like to attend, please contact Joanna Grossman, Professor of Law and Associate Dean for Faculty Development, at lawjlg@hofstra.edu.