HONORS, APPOINTMENTS AND OTHER ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Barbara S. Barron designed and conducted two trial skills courses in Chisinau, Moldova, on behalf of the ABA Rule of Law Initiative (ROLI). One course was designed for criminal defense attorneys, while the other was an introductory skills teaching course.

Professor Barron was also part of the senior faculty for the National Institute for Trial Advocacy (NITA) teacher training course in New York City, from June 7 – 9, 2012.

Robin Charlow was appointed to the newly-formed Legislative Action Committee of the North Shore School District. The group's charge is to investigate the legal bases for issues of concern to public school districts, and to devise plans for necessary law reform to address them.

J. Scott Colesanti and five of his present/former Securities Regulation students submitted a Comment Letter to the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, on April 19, 2012. The letter expressed support for (and modifications to) the proposed "Volcker Rule."

Michael Ende was installed as a director of the Nassau County Bar Association on June 4, 2012. He will also serve on a newly-established task force that is responsible for reviewing the new pro bono bar admission requirements established by New York's Chief Judge Jonathan Lippman.

Susan Fortney was selected for inclusion in the 2012 edition of the Martindale-Hubbell Bar Register of Preeminent Women Lawyers.

Professor Fortney was also honored by donors at the Texas Tech University School of Law, who named a post-graduation fellowship program in her name: "The Fortney Fellows Public Service Program."

In addition, Professor Fortney was identified as one of the Top Rated Attorneys in Nassau and Suffolk Counties in 2012, in a March 2012 article on Long Island's Top Legal Eagles.

Monroe H. Freedman's articles, Judge Frankel's Search for Truth (123 U. PA. L. REV. 1060) and Our Constitutionalized Adversary System (1 CHAP. L. REV. 57, 1998), were selected for translation into Chinese and inclusion in a new book to be published by Beijing University Press, a leading academic publisher in China.

Frank Gulino, along with three Hofstra Law students, accepted awards at a New York State Bar Association ceremony, held on July 30, 2012, for success in the Region 2 rounds of the National Trial Competition (NTC). Two teams of Hofstra Law students reached the finals in the regional NTC; one team was named co-Regional Winner. One student also received an individual award as Second Place Best Overall Advocate in the competition. Professor Gulino, who served as Regional Coordinator for the Hofstra-hosted tournament in February, also accepted awards on behalf of the Hofstra Law teams' coaches, who won the Travis H.D. Lewin Award for Best Coaching in the region.

Professor Gulino was also invited to join the editorial board of The Matrimonial Strategist, a monthly newsletter published by ALM (formerly American Lawyer Media).

In addition, for the third year in a row, Professor Gulino served as deputy editor for the annual Year in Review issue of The International Lawyer, the official publication of the ABA's Section of International Law. In this role, he edited the following article on secured transactions and insolvency: Susan Jaffe Roberts, et al., International Secured Transactions and Insolvency, in International Legal Developments in Review: 2011, 46 INT'L LAW. 253 (No. 1 Spring 2012).

Irina D. Manta's article, Hedonic Trademarks, was accepted for publication in Volume 74 of the Ohio State Law Journal (forthcoming 2013). This article was also featured in Lawrence Solum's Legal Theory Blog as "highly recommended" scholarship.

In addition, Professor Manta's article, The Puzzle of Criminal Sanctions for Intellectual Property Infringement, which was originally published in 24 HARV. J. OF L. & TECHNOLOGY 469 (2011), was reprinted in 13 INTERNET L. & BUS. 293 (2012).

James Sample filed an amicus brief with former acting Solicitor General Walter Dellinger, on May 18, 2012. Written by counsel at Arnold & Porter LLP and Demos, the brief argued against summary reversal in the case of American Tradition Partnership, Inc. v. Bullock.

Professor Sample was also named by "Top Wonks" as a distinguished professional in election law.

Andrew Schepard was awarded the John E. VanDuzer Distinguished Service Award by the Association of Family and Conciliation Courts, at its Convention in Chicago, on June 7, 2012.

Professor Schepard was also named a Fellow of the "Educating Tomorrow's Lawyers Project" of the Institute for the Advancement of the American Legal System, for his contribution to legal education. This honor was also recognized in the "Movers & Shakers" column of Long Island Business News.

Gregory H. Shill's article, Ending Judgment Arbitrage: Jurisdictional Competition and the Enforcement of Foreign Money Judgments, was selected for publication in Volume 54 of the Harvard International Law Journal (forthcoming 2013). This article was also selected for presentation at the Biennial Conference of the International Economic Law Group of the American Society of International Law, held from November 29- December 1, 2012, in Washington, D.C.

Barbara Stark's paper, State Responsibility for Gender Stereotypes, was selected for presentation at the annual meeting of the AALS, on January 7, 2013.

Professor Stark was also appointed a delegate of the American Society of International Law, to attend the 52nd session of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), and the meeting of the pre-session working group, for the 54th session of CEDAW.

Robert Wagner's article, Criminal Corporate Character, was selected for publication in Volume 65 of the Florida Law Review (forthcoming 2013).

Several faculty members participated in the annual Scribes Best Brief Writing Competition:

Frank Gulino served as a brief screener in the Best Brief Writing Competition.

Susan H. Joffe and Amy R. Stein served as judges for the Best Brief Writing Competition.
