REQUIRED READING:

WEEKLY ASSIGNMENTS (SUBJECT TO CHANGE; PAGE REFERENCES ARE TO CASEBOOK):

1. General introduction and overview of course.

   Text: Chapter 1; App’s A, B and C, CPLR Art. 75

3. Concept of Arbitrability
   Text: Chapter 2; American Express Co. v. Italian Colors Restaurant, No. 12-133 (June 20, 2013)

4. Interaction Between Federal and State Arbitration Law
   Text: 133-162

5. Interaction… (cont’d)
   Text: 162-198

6. Proceeding to Arbitration
   Text: Chapter 4

7. The Arbitration Process
   Text: Chapter 5

8. The Arbitrators
   Text: Chapter 6

9. Remedial Powers of Arbitrators
   Text: Chapter 7

10. Judicial Review of Arbitration Awards
    Text: 411-444
11. Judicial Review… (cont’d)
   Text: 445-472

12. Issues with Respect to Multiple Forums, Parties and Proceedings
   Text: Chapter 9

13. Interaction of the FAA and Other Statutes
   Text: Chapter 10

OFFICE HOURS: By appointment.

EXAM AND GRADING:

Your grade for the course will be based on a paper or a take-home final exam, subject to adjustment for class participation. All paper topics must be pre-approved. Your grade for the course may be increased for consistently high-quality class participation. Your grade for the course may be decreased for poor class preparation and/or attendance.