Welcome to Global Climate Change and U.S. Law. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Please register for the course on TWEN. You will find a full syllabus posted there.

The required text is GLOBAL CLIMATE CHANGE AND U.S. LAW (Michael B. Gerrard & Jody Freeman, eds.) (2d edition 2014).

Our first class meeting is Wednesday, August 27 at 8:10am in Room 243. The reading assignment follows. Supplemental reading is not required and is provided to direct interested students to additional material relevant to the week’s topic.

Class #1 (August 27): Introduction and course overview – What is climate change? What are its causes and likely impacts? What is the status of existing U.S. and international efforts to control GHG emissions?

Required:

- Gerrard Text, Chapter 1

Supplemental:
