Welcome back! I hope you all had a wonderful break. Our first class is scheduled for Thursday, January 8 from 10:00-1:00. For this class only, we will be meeting in Breslin Hall, room 105. (For the remainder of the semester we will meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 8:10-10:00 in Roosevelt room 010.)

Prior to our first class, please:

1. Sign up for this class on TWEN.

2. Purchase Introduction to Advocacy: Research, Writing and Arguments, 8th Ed. Please make sure to buy the correct edition.

3. Read Neumann, Chs. 22-23, and App. D

4. Prepare for class discussion the Bradwyn exercise on p. 262 of Neumann. (We will be discussing this exercise in class, but I will not be collecting it.)

5. Bring to class all your materials from last semester’s memo #3 & memo #4. During our first class, we will begin the process of turning these predictive memos into a persuasive trial brief. For planning purposes, your trial briefs will be due in class on Jan. 16.

I’m looking forward to seeing you all again!
