Assignments for the first three classes
January 12, 17, and 19

Amount of reading during the semester: There’s more reading at the beginning of the course to prepare you to draft contracts — and much less reading later in the course (while you’re drafting).

Transactional Lawyering Supplement: Get it from the law school basement copy room.

Thursday, January 12

1. Read the course syllabus — either on the assignments webpage or in the Supplement, pp. 3–9.

2. In the Drafting Contracts book: — read pp. 1–56 (Chapters 1 through 5)
   — do Exercise 5-2 (pp. 57–60)
   — read the contract on pp. 513–518 *

3. In the Supplement:
   — read pp. 19–20
   — read the contract on pp. 21–26 *

* You won’t understand everything in these contracts the first time you read them. Do the best you can. After the first two classes, you’ll begin to be able to interpret them fluently.

Tuesday, January 17

1. In the Transactional Lawyering book: — read pp. 1–5 (Chapter 1)
   127–129 (Appendix A)
   135–137 (Appendix C)
   143–147 (Appendix E)

2. In the Drafting Contracts book: — do Exercise 5-3 (pp. 60–62)

Thursday, January 19

In the Drafting Contracts book:
— read pp 65–86 (Chapter 6)
— do exercise 6-3 (p. 87)
— read pp. 95–111 (Chapter 7)
— do Exercise 7-7 (pp. 115–116) — the purchase offer is on p. 90
