Due to outside teaching commitments for the federal government, i will have to re-schedule certain classes during the first month of classes. That list will be forthcoming within the next few weeks. Please check this website for updates.

For the first two weeks of class:

- A1 will meet from 10 a.m. – 12 p.m. on Monday and Wednesday
- A2 will meet from 2 – 4 p.m. on Monday and Wednesday

Other Important Information

Laptops and tablets are permitted in class for note taking only. There will be a complete ban on laptops for the entire class if anyone is caught using a laptop and/or tablet for anything other than note taking. All other electronic devices, i.e., cell phones, are banned. A cell phone is not allowed on the desk, chair, lap, or anywhere else other than inside one's bag or pocket during class time.

Lateness will not be tolerated. Class starts on time. If a person walks in late, that person will be penalized unless that person can show good cause for the lateness. An inability to find a parking spot is not good cause.

I do not use TWEN. I will email everyone with updated assignments, announcements, and other information regarding the course. I also will provide the information in class.

Update

As set forth above, due to prior outside teaching commitments for the federal government, I will have to cancel two classes in September.
