

First Assignment

For the 1st class, please read the following pages in Dressler and Garvey, Criminal Law; Cases and Comments (7th ed):

Chapter 1- Introduction: Setting the Stage

Pages 1-3, (before Notes and ?s);

Pages 4-8 (before section C);

Pages 9 (section D) – 10 (before Notes and ?s);

Pages 11 (note 2) – 13 (before note 5).

For those who are interested in the location of their seat, you should arrive at the 1st class early and select the seat you want for the semester. There are assigned seats for the course which are determined by where you situate yourself at the first class. A seating chart will be prepared based on where you sit for the first class.

Finally but of no lesser importance, please register for the TWEN page for this course and carefully read the syllabus included on it (you should download it to read the proper format). You should do this before the 1st class.

Please feel free to email me at fred.klein@gmail.com with any questions or comments. I look forward to working with you.