Texts: Assignments are from Klein, Ramseyer, and Bainbridge, Business Associations (9th ed. 2015).

Class web page: You are required to register on the TWEN site for this class with an email address that you check regularly; go to www.lawschool.westlaw.com and select “TWEN” from the menu of items along the top of the page next to the current date. You will then be asked for your Westlaw password and for registration information (including your email address – this need not be the address issued by the Law School). To maximize the effectiveness of the TWEN system, please be sure to provide all requested information. You will then be given the opportunity to register for the TWEN website dedicated to this course (by choosing “Drop/Add a Course”).

The website facilitates the exchange of ideas and provides interested students with an opportunity to participate in online discussions. Registration and participation are an essential part of this course. Students should check the website regularly throughout the semester.

Please read the following for our first week of classes – I am hoping to cover approximately 15 pages per class:

Overview and the agency relationship

KRB 1-18; 21-22
Restatement 3d of Agency, Chapter 1

Please note: In this course, you may not use a laptop, tablet, smart phone, cell phone, or any other electronic device during class. An exception to this policy exists for any student who has been designated by the Office of Student Affairs to take notes for another student receiving an accommodation. If you are a designated note taker, please sit in the last row of the classroom.

You also may not eat or chew gum during class.

And please be on time and prepared.

Thanks!
