Welcome to Employment Discrimination Law.

A course page has been set up on TWEN. Please sign up by August 22nd. Supplemental readings will be posted there and out-of-class communications will take place there. You should read the supplementary readings as they have been edited in the version posted on TWEN.

First Assignment

Class 1 Monday, August 21

Introduction—Overview of discrimination law
The background of discrimination law: Employment at will

Readings: LED 1-2
- Restatement of Employment Law §2.01
- Martin v. Insurance Co., 148 N.Y. 117 (1895)

Questions to consider:
- What are the rationales for the employment-at-will doctrine?
- Are those rationales convincing?
- What types of employment discrimination should be unlawful?