First Day Assignment

1. Please purchase the required texts and materials:
   - LawClassFeedback – an assessment product that provides additional practice on the skills and concepts you will learn in this course.

   We negotiated with the publisher to bundle these three items together at the best price we could get. In order to receive the bundled price, you will need to purchase these items at the bookstore.

   You need to register for LawClassFeedback; my understanding is that you will get a voucher code for LawClassFeedback when you buy the bundle.

2. Register for this class on TWEN – please register with an email address that you check regularly as this is how I will communicate with the class.

3. For the first week of class, please read pages 1-6 and 7-32 in the Crandall and Whaley casebook.
