

Criminal Externship
Professor Fred Klein
Tuesday, 6:10-7:00PM,

Assignment for the 1st class:

We will be taking a journey in this course to discover the practice of criminal law in reality and not merely from a book. Your placement will provide you with the resources for the journey (food, fuel, clothes) and the seminar will provide you with the directions.

Before the 1st class, please do the following:

1. Register on the course TWEN site and carefully read the syllabus and externship manual.
2. Email me (at fred.klein@gmail.com) where your placement is including what bureau/section/court, the name of your supervisor, when you start and your weekly schedule.
3. Think about and be prepared to discuss at the 1st class (you will be called on) or in your initial journal the following questions –
  - a. Why did you go to law school?
  - b. What area would you like to practice in?
  - c. Why did you choose to do an externship?
  - d. Why did you choose your particular placement?
  - e. What are your goals from this placement (be specific)?
  - f. What are your goals from this seminar?
  - g. How can I help you achieve your goals?
