PUBLICATIONS

Mitchell Gans, A Beneficiary as Trust Owner: Decoding Section 678, 35 ACTEC JOURNAL 190 (Fall 2009); Celebrity, Death and Taxes: Michael Jackson’s Estate, 2009 TAX NOTES 200-11 (October 19, 2009); A Look at the Final Section 2053 Regulations, WEALTH TRANSFER PLANNING (November 2009).

Alan N. Resnick, Finding the Shoes that Fit: How Derivative is the Trustee’s Power to Avoid Fraudulent Conveyances Under Section 544(b) of the Bankruptcy Code?, 31 CARDOZO L. REV. 205 (2009).

Norman Silber, Thriving On Adversity: Corporate Treatment and Mistreatment of Consumers in the Wake of Hurricane Katrina, 22 LOY. CONSUMER L. REV. 139 (2009)

COMMENTARY

Linda Galler, “Shop Talk” (comment), Journal of Taxation (September 2009).

Barbara Stark, “For world’s women, recession goes on,” IntLawGrrls, November 23.

PRESENTATIONS

Hillary Burgess presented at a faculty development workshop at Mercer University Law School. She also presented her work in progress, “Deepening the Discourse: Experiential Exercises with Flowcharts Facilitate Learning Law at Complex Cognitive Levels” at a Scholar's forum hosted by Marquette Law School on October 13. Professor Burgess also presented, “Encouraging Self-Assessment: The Essential Skill at the Legal Education” and “Structured Peer Feedback: Creating Experts from Novice Learners,” at a Crossroads 3: Assessment Conference held at Denver's Sturm College of Law on September 18.

Alafair Burke presented “Prosecutorial Agnosticism” at the Northeast People of Color Conference on October 24 at the University of Buffalo Law School. She also served as an invited discussant at the conference, “New Perspectives on Brady and Other Disclosure Obligations: What Really Works?,” held at Cardozo Law School, November 15-16.

Bennett Capers served on a panel on policing strategies at The National Center for Suburban Studies Conference on the Diverse Suburb, held at Hofstra University on October 22-25.

J. Scott Colesanti presented a paper on October 30 at on the “Utility of Stock Market ‘Circuit Breakers’ and Related Attempts at Curtailing Volatility” at the Chapman University School of Law Symposium on the 80th Anniversary of the Great Crash of 1929: Law, Markets, and the Role of the State.”

Ronald Colombo presented his current work-in-progress, "Trust and Financial Regulation" at the Morgan, Lewis & Bockius Symposium on Securities Regulation, hosted by Villanova University School of Law. Professor Colombo also served as Conference Co-Chair of the Symposium on Investment Management Law, hosted by the Journal of International Business & Law at Hofstra University School of Law on October 9.

Nora Demleitner served as a discussant at the American Society of Criminology annual meeting on November 6, 2009. Her presentation was entitled, “Is there a more just ‘Fortress Europe’?” The policy and discussant papers have been published in a volume entitled Contemporary Issues in Criminal Justice Policy (Natasha Frost, Joshua Freilich and Todd Clear, eds., 2009). Dean Demleitner also participated in an October 20 panel discussion on "Women and the Law" sponsored by Soroptimist International of Nassau County. She also spoke on a panel entitled "Sentencing Guidelines and Plea Bargaining" at an October 17 conference on "Examininig Modern Approaches to Prosecutorial Discretion," held at Temple Law School and sponsored by the Temple Political and Civil Rights Law Review.

Dean Demleitner also spoke on a panel entitled "Critical Legal Studies and Comparative Law" at the annual American Society of Comparative Law Conference held at Roger Williams Law School in Rhode Island on October 3. Finally, she spoke in honor of the WASP (Women Airforce Service Pilots) at the American Airpower Museum at Republic Airport in Farmingdale on September 27.

Nora Demleitner and Joanna Grossman participated in the "Women in Law Symposium: Gender Equity Programs", sponsored by the Nassau County Bar Association on October 21.

J. Herbie DiFonzo headlined the Report Back from Working Groups and Closing Remarks at the Conference on the Uniform Collaborative Law Act, Hofstra University, Hempstead, NY on November 20. He also ran a panel discussion on Family Law Careers for Law Students at the Association of Family and Conciliation Courts – New York Chapter 2009 Annual Conference on December 4.

Eric M. Freedman co-taught an Overview of Habeas Corpus to U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit law clerks on October 6. He also gave Advanced Habeas Corpus Workshop at NYC Bar’s Annual Habeas Corpus Training for Capital Post-Conviction Attorneys on October 27. Professor Freedman led a panel on Current Terrorism Issues at Ramaz School on November 3. Finally, Professor Freedman chaired the panel “Institutional Responses to Expanding Presidential Power” at the Symposium “President or King? “ sponsored by the Peter S. Kalikow Center for the Study of the Presidency at Hofstra University on November 5.

Monroe Freedman was the Distinguished Lecturer at St. Thomas Law School, where he presented “Lawyers’ Ethics and Constitutional Law,” on November 3
Linda Galler was a panel participant at a town hall-style meeting entitled "Implications and Consequences of Foreign Bank Account Reporting" on September 16 sponsored by the accounting firm Holtz Rubenstein Reminick LLP.

Joanna Grossman participated in a panel held at Boston University School of Law to celebrate publication of her book Gender Equality: Dimensions of Women’s Equal Citizenship (with Linda McClain) on October 27. She also served as a panelist for “Talk-Back Live,” an audience discussion series for the David Mamet play “Oleanna”, running at the Golden Theatre on Broadway.

Julian Ku presented a paper, “The Curious Case of Corporate Liability Under the Alien Tort Statute,” at the Annual Meeting of the American Society for International Law’s International Law in Domestic Courts Interest Group, held at University of California – Hastings College of Law on December 8. Professor Ku also served as a discussant on “The Future of Presidential Powers,” part of the November 5 symposium, “President or King,” organized by the Peter S. Kalikow Center for the Study of the Presidency at Hofstra University.

On October 28, Professor Ku debated Scott Ritter on U.S. policy toward Afghanistan and Iraq during Hofstra University’s Day of Dialogue. On October 23, Professor Ku participated in a panel discussion on the topic, “Are We Still Allowed to Reject Transnationalist Norms?” at the American Branch of the International Law Association’s International Law Weekend, held at Fordham School of Law.

On October 2, Professor Ku participated in a roundtable discussion on “Does the Constitution Follow the Flag?,” at Temple University’s Beasley School of Law. Finally, he moderated a panel on International Law Teaching and the Curriculum at the American Society for International Law Workshop on Teaching International Law at Hofstra Law School, held on September 18, 2009.

Stefan Krieger presented "Cognitive Science and Learning for Retention" at UCLA School of Law's conference on The Pedagogy of Interviewing and Counseling II: Continuing the Quest for Improved Methodology on October 16. He also presented "Strategies for Promoting Affordable Housing in Suburban Communities" at the Hofstra University’s Center for Suburban Studies’ conference, The Diverse Suburb: History, Politics and Prospects, on October 22.

Eric Lane was a panelist on a discussion of “Misunderstanding Congress: Toward a New Legal Realist Theory of Statutory Interpretation," at an October 29 and 30 conference at University of Wisconsin School of Law. Professor Lane also served as a panelist on the topic of “Constitutional Limits on Presidential Power in Wartime,” which was part of the November 4-5 symposium on “President or King,” organized by the Peter S. Kalikow Center for the Study of the Presidency at Hofstra University.

Theo Liebmann participated at the invitation-only National Summit on Creating a National Right to Counsel for Children held on October 23. The Summit brought together lawyers, academics, judges and social scientists from around the country to develop strategies to promote the right to counsel for children and youth in abuse and neglect cases.

Professor Liebmann also led a workshop on cross-disciplinary trial skills involving students from Hofstra Law and the Hunter College School of Social Work on October 17. The workshop is part of the Family Law with Skills Course taught by Andrew Scheppard and J. Herbie DiFonzo, who also participated in the workshop.

Ashira Ostrow presented "Cooperative Federalism and Wind: Strategies for Siting Wind Energy Facilities in the Suburbs" at The National Center for Suburban Studies conference on the Diverse Suburb. The Conference was held at Hofstra University on October 22-25.

Alan Resnick spoke on "Disclosure Requirements by Ad Hoc Committees of Investors in Distressed Debt" at the Association of the Bar of the City of New York on October 14. He also spoke on "Proposed Bankruptcy Rule Amendments on Disclosure Requirements and Claims Trading" at an American Bar Association program that was part of the annual meeting of the National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges held in Las Vegas, Nevada on October 19.

Professor Resnick also spoke on "Bankruptcy Reform 2009: A Status Report" at a September 15 program sponsored by the Nassau Academy of Law. Finally, Professor Resnick moderated the "Arbitration and Bankruptcy" panel at the conference titled "ADR Meets Bankruptcy: Cross-Purposes or Cross-Pollination?" on October 2, sponsored by American Bankruptcy Institute Law Review, The Hugh L. Carey Center for Dispute Resolution and St. John University's Institute for Bankruptcy Policy.

Norman Silber (with Professor Jeffrey Sovern) prepared a statement in support of the proposed Consumer Financial Protection Act which was endorsed by more than 85 other law faculty around the nation, the Statement was reported in the Wall Street Journal, Business Week, and scores of other publications and introduced into the record at Congressional hearings on the legislation;

Amy R. Stein gave a presentation and was a panelist at a workshop for new legal writing faculty at the Manhattan Campus of St. John’s University School of Law.

Rose Cuisin Villazor presented "Critiquing the Federal Preemption of the CNMI's Territorial Immigration Authority” (work-in-progress) and "Racially Inadmissible Spouses" (chapter in forthcoming book on Loving v. Virginia that will be published by Cambridge University Press [co-authored with Kevin Maillard] at LatCrit XIV on October 2. The American University Washington College of Law hosted the conference. She also presented “Critiquing the Federal Preemption of the CNMI’s Territorial Immigration Authority” at the International Law Weekend Conference, Fordham Law School on October 23.

Additionally, she gave a faculty workshop of her forthcoming Article, “Oyama v. California: At the Intersection of Property, Race and Citizenship,” (Washington University Law Review, 2010) at Lewis & Clark Law School on October 27. Finally, she presented, “Sanctuary Cities & Local Citizenship” at an invitation only colloquium at Fordham Law School, the Cooper-Walsh Colloquium, on October 30. The Article will be published by the Fordham Urban Law Journal in 2010.

BROADCAST APPEARANCES

Nora Demleitner was interviewed on News 12 on Oct. 19 regarding the choice of President Barack Obama as the recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize.
Joanna Grossman appeared on KMOX Radio in St. Louis on October 8 to talk about the David Letterman scandal.

Eric Lane spoke on the topic of democracy on a WNYC radio show, that aired on Primary Day, September 16.

QUOTED IN

Barbara Barron, Experts: Lacey evidence ruling may hamper prosecution, Newsday, November 24.

Alafair Burke, More deals possible in hate case, Newsday, December 4.

Robin Charlow, Record exec pleads not guilty in mail fiasco, Newsday, November 21.

Nora V. Demleitner, NYC terror trial raises questions, Newsday, November 16.

J. Herbie DiFonzo, Federal hate crimes probe eyes Suffolk police, Newsday, October 5.

Leon Friedman, Q&A on Suffolk’s drug-sniffing dogs, Newsday, September 24.

Daniel Greenwood, Online university of hope, The Age (Australia), November 30.

James Sample, Congress Set to Take Aim at Judicial Recusal, The National Law Journal, November 2; Judicial Campaign Speech Case May Be Destined for Supreme Court, The National Law Journal, September 22; Group hopes an event with Sandra Day O’Connor will help start discussions about Michigan’s judicial selection, Michigan Lawyer’s Weekly, November 16.

CITATIONS

J. Scott Colesanti, 37 Hofstra L. Rev. 805.

Mitchell Gans: 35 ACTEC J. 106; 44 Real

Elizabeth Glazer: 57 UCLA L. Rev. 1; SR010 ALI-ABA 1491; 39 U. Balt. L.F. 75; 23 Notre Dame J.L. Ethics & Pub. Pol'y 261

Frank Gulino: 81-OCT N.Y. St. B.J. 64.

Stefan Krieger: 16 Clinical L. Rev. 195; 27 Quinnipiac L. Rev. 899; 27 QLR 899; 24 Ohio St. J. on Disp. Resol. 481; 47 U. Louisville L. Rev. 21; 6 J. Ass'n Legal Writing Directors 75.

Eric Lane: 3 FIU L. Rev. 307; 41 Conn. L. Rev. 1741; 53 N.Y.L. Sch. L. Rev. 365; 53 N.Y.L. Sch. L. Rev. 375; 53 N.Y.L. Sch. L. Rev. 541; 53 N.Y.L. Sch. L. Rev. 375; 40 McGeorge L. Rev. 55.

Theo Liebmann: 218 PLI/Crim 41; 72 Alb. L. Rev. 497.

Lauris Wren: 78 Fordham L. Rev. 461.

HONORS, APPOINTMENTS, AND OTHER ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Ronald J. Colombo has joined the editorial review board of The Review of Business Journal.

Joanna L. Grossman has been elected to membership in the American Law Institute.

Andrew Schepard has been appointed a member of New York State Permanent Commission on Justice for Children chaired by former Chief Judge Judith Kaye.

Professor Schepard and Hofstra law students were recognized for their work on the Uniform Collaborative Law Act by the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals.

Norman Silber was re-elected to the position of Secretary to the Board of Directors, Consumers Union. He was also appointed chair of the Nominating Committee. Professor Silber was also appointed to the Board of the Consumers Union Action Fund, a 501(c)(4) nonprofit corporation.